

Electronic procurement system on the way to digital single market

*Oļegs Filipovičs,
Director of the Electronic Procurement Department
State Regional Development Agency*

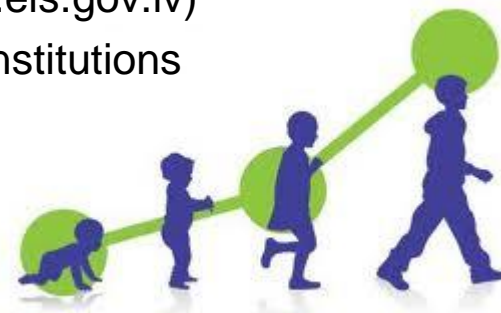

Country profile on eProcurement

Supported pre-award phases <small>(green=supported; red=not supported)</small>	eNotification www.iub.gov.lv	eAccess to tender documents (now - decentralised) (centralisation – in ongoing project)	eSubmission (ongoing project)	eEvaluation and Award (ongoing project)
Supported post-award phases <small>(green=supported; red=not supported)</small>	eOrdering through eCatalogues www.eis.gov.lv	eInvoicing	ePayment https://v.kase.gov.lv/
Supported tools <small>(green=supported; red=not supported)</small>	DPS	eAuctions (ongoing project)	Buyer's Profiles (decentralised)	eStatement (ongoing project)
Signature / authentication requirement	Electronic Certificate https://www.eparaksts.lv/en/

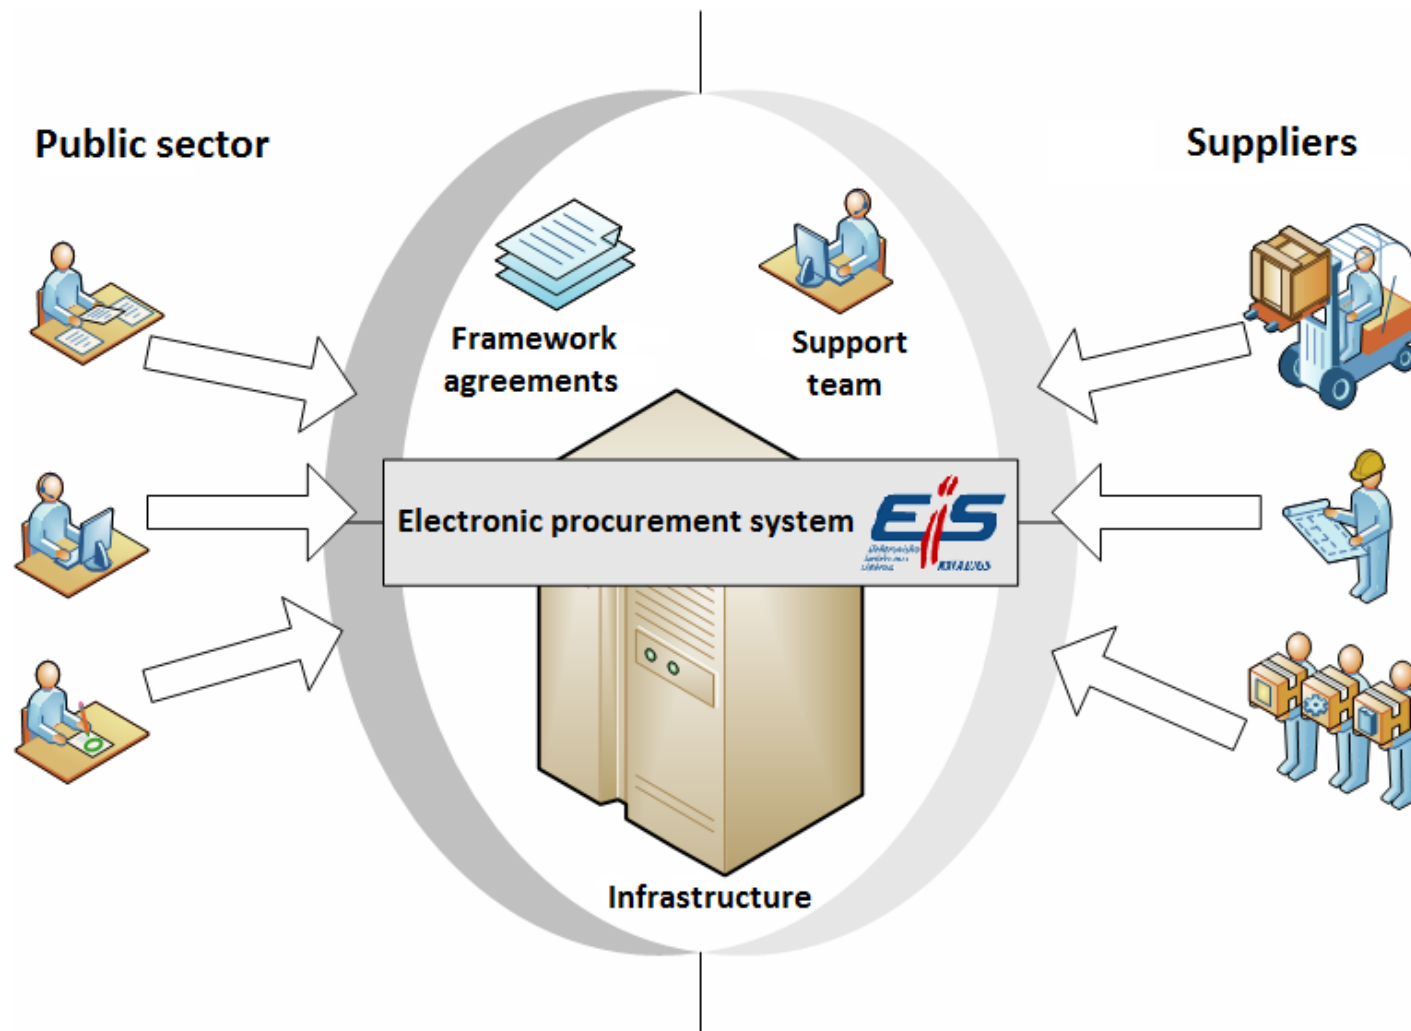

eProcurement history

- 2000 – launched the first version of e-notification system (static HTML);
- 2002 – dynamic e-notification system with search engine (www.iub.gov.lv);
- 2004 – Cabinet of Ministers accepted conception on «Usage of IT in the public procurement system»;
- 2004– State treasury developed ePayment IS “eKase” (later <https://v.kase.gov.lv/>)
- 2005 – Cabinet of Ministers accepted conception “On advanced electronic signature carrier selection and e-signature usage in Latvia”
- 2005 – launched the first version of e-catalogues (www.eiepirkumi.gov.lv);
- 2010 – Cabinet of Ministers accepted “eID card conception”
- 2010 – launched the second version of e-catalogues (www.eis.gov.lv)
- 2011 – e-catalogues usage becomes mandatory for state institutions
- 2012 – eID card usage
- 2012 – EPS awarded as best eGovernment system
("Platīna pele 2012")

How it works?

Legal framework

I EU directives and regulations

II National laws

- Public Procurement Law
 - Public service providers Procurement Law
 - Defence and security procurement law
 - Public-Private Partnership Law
-

III Regulations of Cabinet of Ministers

- December 28, 2010, the regulation of Cabinet of Ministers No.1241 “centralized electronic procurement rules”
-

IV Framework agreements

Thank you for your attention Questions?

EIS Internet address: www.eis.gov.lv

Contact information:

e-mail - eis@vraa.gov.lv

phone – (+371) 67350649

mobile phone – (+371) 26312458

